Mr. Stansfield Turner
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C.

Dear Stan:

First of all, belated congratulations on your appointment as Director of the CIA. I know it must be an extremely demanding and time consuming assignment.

For several reasons, Gaynor and I will be visiting Washington, D.C. probably sometime during September of this year. As you may note from our letterhead, we have a Washington office which I must visit to consider several management areas in which I am involved in the firm. Also, I would like to take several extra days and visit points of interest in Washington. Gaynor also has a distant family relative with whom we would like to visit.

Although I know your schedule must be impossible, it would be very pleasant for us if we could possibly visit you, at lunch, in your office or at any other time while we are in Washington. Because the demands of your schedule are far greater than mine, if you think it could work out, perhaps you could suggest a time and I am sure we will be able to fit our schedule into it.

I very much hope we will be able to get together.

With kind personal regards,

Sincerely,

jr;gsr
